Pennies from Heaven (almost)

How would you choose to spend an additional $42,000 over the next year in Bottineau Neighborhood? Come to the 7 PM January 24th community meeting (7 PM at 1700 University Ave NE) and vote on how we should spend the funds. Bring an idea, bring a neighbor, but—most importantly—bring yourself!

Bottineau has already budgeted $58,384 for 2013; the additional $42,000 is what remains from the 2011-12 funding cycle. But here’s the catch: if we want this additional money released, we need to come up with a budget for how to spend these funds on neighborhood priority projects and community engagement.

New Hennepin County Commissioner Linda Higgins will be at this meeting, updating the neighborhood on the Lowry Ave NE improvement plans. Council Member Diane Hofstede will also be on hand to give a City of Minneapolis perspective on Lowry Ave NE improvements.

But this meeting is primarily about what community engagement means in Bottineau Neighborhood. Is it about funding the river clean-up each spring, or about expanding the California Street Farm CSA (Community Supported Agriculture)? Should our community engagement programs include support for block club organizing—especially for rental properties—around the new “one-sort” recycling effort the City of Minneapolis is implementing in 2013 for Bottineau? Or is it about how we successfully include Somali and Spanish-speaking communities in neighborhood affairs? Are there other groups that would benefit from outreach? Should we fund the artist community in a greater way to ensure more success of their efforts?

These are only examples, meant to encourage your own ideas.

Neighborhood priority projects are another avenue for spending City funds allocated to Bottineau. A Neighborhood priority project, by definition, expands on community engagement efforts by reaching beyond Bottineau Neighborhood and includes projects that affect the greater Northeast community. For example, making Marshall St NE bicycle and pedestrian friendly would be a neighborhood priority project because Marshall is an artery that links all the western neighborhoods of Northeast. Or, out of concern for jobs and development, sponsoring a new business training forum on regulatory requirements of the City of Minneapolis might be another neighborhood priority that impacts both Bottineau and Northeast in general. Further, how are we as a community leveraging the new Mississippi Water Management Organization presence (just north of Lowry on Marshall St NE) in terms of our own neighborhood concerns?

Time is short as Bottineau neighborhood needs to budget these funds and spend them—ideally—by December 31, 2013. Neighborhoods that do not use their funds will not be considered good stewards of the money.

Block Leader Training

The Minneapolis Police Department Crime Prevention team will present a block leader training on January 30th from 6:00 to 8:00 PM at the 2nd Precinct located at 1911 Central Ave NE. Meet the new Crime Prevention Specialist for Northeast, Susan Bradshaw. Topics covered will include an introduction to community crime prevention, organization of a block or apartment club, services Crime Prevention provides, leadership duties of a block club organizer, how and when to use 911, and effective problem solving techniques. Please RSVP by calling 612-673-2874 or email susan.bradshaw@minneapolisismn.gov or nicholas.juarez@minneapolisismn.gov

Ethnic Film Series: Celebrating the Multicultural Identity of Northeast

Logan Park is proud to announce the premier event of its Ethnic Film Series: Celebrating the Multicultural Identity of Northeast. Bienvenue Chez les Ch'tis ("Welcome to the Sticks") will be shown on January 17th at the Ritz Theater (345 13th Ave NE, Minneapolis) at 7 PM. The 2008 film, directed by Dany Boon, is in French with English subtitles and runs for 108 minutes. Sheridan Neighborhood Association is co-sponsoring this event.

Bienvenue Chez les Ch'tis is a comedy about a French postman who tries to get transferred from the south of France to the French Riviera, but instead gets banished to the far north of France — the sticks! Their food is different, their dialect sounds like a different language, and he decides he can't even ask his family to join him there. The story unfolds comically as he begins to really like the north, but can't admit it to his wife, who thinks he's just being brave. It is a well-loved iconic film in France, and has been watched by more of the French people than any film in their history!

After the screening, French desserts and coffee will be served at the Ritz, accompanied by a discussion about the film and French culture. Watch for area restaurants and clubs to provide French menus and beverages that evening, making it a French Night Out on the Town. And every three months, this series will feature the influence of other immigrant cultures in Northeast Minneapolis.

Gardening Corner: Fruits of the City

Fruit trees need yearly attention to maximize yields and prevent damage, and winter is the season for pruning. Fruits of the City is a program of the Minnesota Project that offers fruit tree pruning workshops. Pruning during the growing season increases the risk of infection and can be fatal to the tree. The growing season begins when sap flows in the spring and ends in late fall when dormancy is clearly evident by loss of leaves and the hard frost that leaves the ground at least partially frozen.

The instructor is Jeffrey Johnson, Landscape gardener with the Minnesota Landscape Arboretum, University of Minnesota. The class will be held on March 23rd from 10 AM to 3 PM with an hour lunch break. Participants should bring a bag lunch or visit an area restaurant that day. The training is located at Dodge Nature Center, 365 Marie Ave. W. West, St. Paul, MN 55118. Warm clothes and gloves are suggested. After a two hour lecture and demonstration, the schedule brings students outdoors to work on trees with handsaws, hand pruners, pole saws, loppers and spreaders. Lecture topics include: fruit production and harvest, optimal tree life-span, reducing maintenance time, and application of pesticides. Cost of the workshop is $30.00 and pre-registration is required. Contact fruits@mnproject.org or call 651-789-3321 to register.

Note: Too many apples, pears or plums? Contact Fruits of the City and volunteers will come pick the fruit, leave you bushel(s) of fruit and take excess for food shelves or processing.
